

Celebrating Historic Churches and Organs in Brooklyn!

Brooklyn Church Walking Organ Tour SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 2011 — 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM

The Brooklyn Chapter of the American Guild of Organists (AGO) is pleased to present a Fall tour of distinguished and diverse houses of worship in the Park Slope section of Brooklyn. We plan to visit St. Augustine Roman Catholic Church, St. Francis Xavier, Congregation Beth Elohim and Oldfirst Reformed Church. This will be a WALKING tour as the churches are in close proximity to each other. However, should you require transportation it can be provided at no additional charge. Tour guide Andrew Dolkart, author of Landmarks of New York City, will point out items of architectural and historical interest in the featured churches as well as the neighborhoods surrounding them. Included in the tour is a demonstration of the pipe organ at each location.

Bach's lunch is included in the package price of $25.00 per person for members of the AGO Brooklyn Chapter, or $35.00 for non-members of the Brooklyn Chapter. Continental breakfast will also be provided.

The tour will begin at 10:00 am, and end about 3:00 pm. The starting point of the tour is St. Augustine Catholic Church 116 Sixth Avenue, between Sterling & Park Pl. in Park Slope This is convenient to the subway via the 2, 3, and 4 to Bergen street, or via the B41 bus.

Please complete the reservation form below and return with your payment by Tuesday, September 20. (For further information, you may contact Raymond Trapp, Sub-Dean, at (347) 374-2416.
